THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW.

FIRST THAT Custom is can always rely on our goods, place the most implicit confidence in them to our aim has ever been to meet the exigencies of the market, to the proverb cited by Cicero, "You may trust him in the dark."

SECOND THAT No matter which way the mercury jumps people can buy from us in the same. We've got something for everybody to wear for every minute in the twenty-four hours.

THIRD THAT We can do nothing unnatural or impossible. We can't paint a cork so as to resemble a rock that it'll sink to the bottom if cast into a stream; but

FOURTH THAT We are selling all kinds of Boots, Shoes and Rubber Goods at prices which we guarantee are the lowest in this or any other city in the Union.

FIFTH THAT We think the above argument should convince every man, woman and child that the place to buy Boots and Shoes is from FERRISS & LAPHAM, 148 East Main Street, the Decatur branch of the big Wholesale House of L. L. Ferriss & Co., Chicago.

Gathering of the Garvers at Oakland Park—The Old 63d Illinois Infantry.

GARVER FAMILY REUNION.

The second annual reunion of the Garver family began at Oakland Park this forenoon with a large attendance, a basket dinner receiving attention at noon. The family is one of the oldest in Macon county, all descendants of Jacob Garber, a native of Switzerland, who came to America in 1730 and settled in Lancaster county, Pa. One of Jacob's three sons was Jacob Garber, whose children came to Illinois. One of the boys, Christian Garver, married an English woman who changed the family name in the Bible from Garber to Garver. Christian Garver bought land in Dauphin county, Pa., where he died. He was the father of the original Garvers of Macon county. They are John, Jacob, David, Samuel, Christian and Elizabeth, Nancy, Rachel and Barbara Garver. Uncle David Garver, aged 81, is the only living member of the Christian Garver branch of the family. He with John, Jacob and Christian formed the Garver settlement northwest of Decatur fifty years ago. Below is a list of descendants as reported at the first reunion:

She was Tipsy.

Officers Hoy and Koeppel arrested a drunken woman last night and lodged her in the first ward cooler. She carried a satchel and claimed to be from Natick when first asked, and upon second inquiry said she had fled from Bement. The sidewalks, unfortunately, near the levee, were too narrow for her. She also had a desire to shake hands with every gentleman she met.

The Electric Railway.

Got ready to ride on the new cars.

A DAY AT THE FAIR.

Monticello Catches a Great Crowd at the Pumpkin Show.

To-day closes the most successful fair in the history of Piatt county, with a free for all trot for a purse of $200, in which Billy Downing will drive "Billy G." and capture the prize. There were fully 4,000 people at the fair yesterday to dodge the pumpkins and fairs, to see the races, and to witness the Games, hot air balloon ascension and successful parachute drop. Goodwin's Band had possession of the top of the directors' stand and enlivened the old minutes with spirited music. The grounds are loaded a mile north of the town, and visitors get there in trucks rolling through two main roads which were marked, mainly by two clouds of dust yesterday. The managers of the fair are President H. D. Peters, Secretary Tatum and Treasurer Moore, with L. M. Taylor, C. W. Platt, J. F. Knapp, J. H. Kline, J. W. C. Grady, O. Mansfield and William Chambers as directors and assistants. They know their business. Although the grounds contained but 15 acres, within the enclosure are crowded more life and color than were ever seen in a Macon county fair even in the old days. The management do not allow any wheels of fortune or other gambling devices on the grounds, and have police on duty watching check-huck crooks. But in the line of privileges in the way of shows and dry goods bus maps everything goes. The Liberator's reporter counted no less than 30 separate so-called "shows," not counting the refreshment booths beneath the amphitheatre. The shows embraced the battle of Gettysburg panorama, a horse show, shooting gallery, war views, a photograph gallery in a tent which caught the country youths and maidens, a pool table rigged up under two trees, devices for trying your strength, the dummy baby rackets, (three throws for a dime), the cane rackets, spectacle lay out (your choice for 25 cents), a tent with Tommy Coo, the glass and iron eating man; the anatomical museum with card shown—ladies not admitted; Bristol's museum of raveling, New Orleans men, the over press at merry-go-round swing, and last but not least, a platform dance which was kept going at a lively gait all the afternoon. Hundreds of farmers were on the grounds with their families, and everybody had to pay 50 cents to get in. The Piatt farmers consider it their religious duty to attend the county fair, not only one day but the entire week, and they were out in full force. The races included a half mile dash, won by Ross Webster in 50 1/2; a mile pacing race, won by Monkey Jolla, time 2:20 1/2; and a trot, won by Ali S. time 2:42 1/2.

Among the Decatur people at the fair were: Sheriff Maunz, Silas Richard, William Sawyer, John Irwin, L. F. Muzzy, J. B. Wentz, J. M. Hall and wife, D. H. Conklin, Andrew Stevens, Dr. S. H. Swain, George Belzer, James Leforgee, Charles Hughes, J. W. Crane, John A. Swearingen, C. H. Shilling, Albert Barnes, L. L. Race, Ed Willis, Frank Bentley, C. Dieckhoff, Adolph and Phil Mueller, H. W. Downing, Will Drake, Joe Alexander, W. A. Bagan, P. K. Bartholomew, Jacob Rook, Charles Clark, John McDonald, Rolla Dills, Charles Taylor, Clyde Lewis, Moses McCoy, Emma Klatt and Boone, A. C. East, Robert Mueller, Frank Pink, Starin Stead, Kate Fisk, Emma Mackay, of Dayton, Ohio, Reynolds Rust, James Glazebrook, Anne McDonald and Helen Richards.

In the machinery department Theo. Nelson was in charge of the Haworth steam compressor and check-roller, and Mr. Hardy of Bloomington exhibited the C. B. & C. check-roller. George P. Blaine took all of the premiums with his splendid display of domestic sewing machines and needle work. A Tail compiler was also shown.

Coming home all of the trains were crowded with people, many standing in the aisles when the cannon ball reached Decatur.

Those who left for Monticello today were: J. W. Isaac, John Stough, Dr. S. H. Swain, J. P. Pollock, John McDonald, Bert Menzies, P. D. Caldwell, Fred Mueller and Jerome Anderson.

A Pleasant Gathering.

Miss Irene Armstrong entertained a party of young lady friends yesterday afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock at the home of her parents on Prairie Avenue in a very pleasing manner. Croquet and other outdoor games occupied the attention of the company and splendid refreshments were served. Among those present were: Anna Boller, Clara Green, Phyllis Chas. Gortz, Gertie Tyler, Grace Hamaker, Doran Buckingham, Sadie Roby, Nellie Ghor, Allyn Irwin, Laura Shaffer, Salvia Shaffer, Annie Broadway, Adela Blackstone, Adela DeForest, Blanche Alexander, Mattie Miller and Bessie Young.
